Mr. Allen W. Dulles, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Allen:

Thank you so much for your note of December 19th. I agree with you that a special trip to tell you of fascinating times that I had both in Zurich and in London would be unnecessary. I simply mentioned it to Red with the thought that I might be able to see you when you were in New York. When I do come to Washington, I will most certainly accept your invitation to call but I assure you I will not stay long and waste your time. I can only say that no one had a more fascinating experience than I did with ten days in Switzerland during some of the most trying days relative to Hungary, and then two weeks in London staying as a guest of the Chairman of Lloyds.

All good wishes to you for the year ahead.

Most sincerely,

Red White has told me of your good offer to come down and talk with me about your recent trip to Europe, and particularly concerning the information you gained [redacted]

STAT I appreciate this very much, and would, of course, be delighted to see you. However, since I believe you had talks with [redacted] and he has kept me fully advised, I do not believe that I should ask you to make a special trip.

If you are going to be in town at any time please give me a ring. It is always a pleasure to see you, and I sincerely appreciate your continued interest in the Agency.

Sincerely,
